Famous for being one of the liveliest stretches of fun and excitement on the East Coast, the Wildwoods Boardwalk offers a pure sensory overload of sights, sounds, and smells to visitors, with three spectacular amusement piers, world-class roller coasters, three wet and wild beachfront Waterparks, carnival-style midway games, flashing arcades, and a myriad of retail shops and eateries, along with the famous Wildwoods Boardwalk Sightseer Tram Cars – known for the famous phrase “Watch the Tram Car, Please!”

In addition to its beautiful beaches and one-of-a-kind Boardwalk, the Wildwoods also offer over 160 events and festivals on the Boardwalk or at the beach throughout the year, appealing to just about everyone – and most of them are FREE. The events include regional, national, and international events like the Wildwoods’ International Kite Festival, National Marbles Tournament, and the Wildwoods Baby Parade – a Boardwalk tradition since 1909.
